

DISCHARGE OF ONE JOINT DEBTOR

Applicable Law and Rules

See Form B 18J for a discussion of the law and rules which apply to both Form B 18J and Form B 18JO.

General Information for the Clerk

This form may be used when only one of the debtors in a joint case is discharged. This can occur if the other debtor is dismissed from the case, converts to another chapter, signs a waiver of discharge, or is denied discharge.

Form B 18J may be used for the discharge of two joint chapter 7 debtors. Official Form B 18 is used for the discharge in a chapter 7 case filed by an individual debtor. See Form B 18J for additional information for the clerk.

Form B 18JO has been revised to conform to the 1997 revision of Official Form 18.
